WAIT UNTIL TRIAL

Pretenses.

Statement of S. H. Thresher After Arrest for Getting Money Under False and All Received Gifts from a Tree.

DOUBLE CELEBRATION.

the children and other interested ones

A Christmas tree with beautiful dec orations was provided by the two teachers as well as a generous amount candy and presents which were dis tributed among the school children by a Santa Claus who carried out his part to the delight of everybody. The en-

Joseph E. Carpenter at Fort Point.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Lamb, New Hayen; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Carpenter, Midway, Miss Agnes Wilson, Norwich, Miss Ruth E. Carpenter, Hartford, Louis M. Carpenter, Jawett City, and Paul C. Carpenter, Norwich.

Art Exhibit.

out invitations to attend an exhibition of paintings done in northern Africa, Provence and New England, by Frank Edward Johnson, Tuesday, December 27

Family Gathering.

The Providence Art club has sent

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph arpenter at Forst Point Christmas

BEFORE JUDGING.

Jenry Allen & Son FURNISHING UNDERTAKERS

Norwich, Monday, Dec. 26, 1910.

THE WEATHER.

Forecast for Today.

For New England: Fair Monday: sider in east Maine. Tuesday snow ad warmer; moderate north to east

Predictions from the New York Her

Observations in Norwich

Sun, Moon and Tides.

GREENEVILLE

Miss Lena Beaudreau organist. The sermons were upon the great feast day. The 10.30 high mass was celebrated by Rev. Patrick J. McCormick of Washington, a native of Greene-ville, and the sermon was delivered by Rev. Father Kenne y. Following the mass, benediction of the most blessed Funeral of Miss Sliney.

casket was covered with flow-

Holiday Visitors. William Moriarty of New York is ng at his home on North Main street, pent Christmas at his home on Sev-nth street.

Dennis McIntyre of Brooklyn, N. Y. spent Christmas at his home on Hick-ory street.

Dennis Bowen of Whitingville, Mass.,

Thomas Enright of Southington is James Murphy of New York is ending a week's vacation at his home Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tabor of Mil-ford are spending a few days with rel-atives on Seventh street.

Rev. Patrick J. McCormick of Washington is spending a few days at his home on Fifth street.

Miss Gertrude Kelly of Roston is spending a two weeks' vacation as the cuest of relatives on Central avenue

Capt, James McClafferty of Engine company No. 2 has returned from a week's visit with relatives in Toledo.

Hernard Cuil of New York spent Christmas as the guest of his grand-father, Bernard Dunn of North Main

Mr. and Mrs. William Counhan and

Daniel Counthan of Providence are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Counthan of Oakridge street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Campion of Meriden and David T. Campion of New Roch-elle, N. Y. are spending the holidays as guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Chimney Fire Sunday Afternoon.

Shortly before 5 o'clock Sunday af-ternoon Engine company No. 1 was called to Franklin square for what proved to be a chimney fire in the Chapman block. It was quickly put ut as soon as found without damage s passing a week at his home on Cen-

the church.

Third street.

tenerts street

me in town.

E. Sliney-Personals.

Sun | High | Moon Rises, | Sets, | Water, | Risea

88 Main Street.

IADY ASSISTANT WHEN REDDERETS

Chocolates

for Christmas.

There's nothing better than the Rich, fragrant Chocolate. Dainty Boxes. Why not give the best.

N. D. Sevin & Son

NOTICE

Dr. Louise Franklin Miner Is now located in her new office, Breed Hall,

Office hours, 1 to 4 p. m.

Always the Best... In Material, Style, Fit and WORK-

-laphone 650.

MANSHIP CHAS. H. NICKERSON, Merchant Tailor, 128 Main St.

WULF

Don't Forget The

For Christmas.

Highest Possible Grades

Yerrington's

49 Main Street

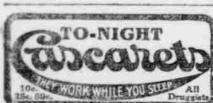

04120

STEP IN AND TRY OUR 35c DINNER From 12 to 2

DEL-HOFF CAFE, Ground Floor

Floral Designs and Cut Flowers For All Occasions. GEDULDIG'S.

Latest Novelties

Chignon Puffs Cluster Curls or the New Colffures

The.

67 Broadway 'Phone 505

The Goodwin Corsel and Lingerie MONELS FOR EVERY FIGURE.

WALL PAPERS The lain Spring Jenves a larger

P. F. MURTAGH, 92 and 94 West Main Street.

Funera AGER Director

'ampion of Golden street.

70 Franklin St., Bulletin Bldg. Telephone 342-2. Prompt service day or night Lady Assistant. Residence 116 Broadway.

Telephone 642-3.

NEED WILL The Bulletin.

Large Rainfall Helps Both Reservoirs and Causes the Pressure to Greatly Increase-Tests Indefinitely Postponed-Pumps and Electrical Equipment Will be Ready this Week-Guarantee to Lift the Water Higher than Fairview When Full.

aid: On Monday fair and slightly cold-er weather will prevail, with light northwesterly winds, and on Tuesday partly overcast and milder weather, followed by snow in the northern dis-Norwich never had a more timely mark Sunday, while Meadow brook Christmas present than was given it basin had water to the depth of two feet above the 24-inch tipe to Fair-to indefinitely postpone taking of tests at the Falls mill as to the purifying of the Yantic river water. It is practically sure now, says Superintendent Corkery, that it will not be necessary to use the river, the very result the board has been so desirous of announcing.

board has been so desirous of announcing.

Work will be resumed on the pipe line today and by Tuesday night it is expected the pipe will be all laid, or nearly so. It has all been carted there. The pump house and electrical work will also be in advanced stage by that time.

The rainfall of 1.40 inches, because of the snow on the ground, was as good as a two-inch rainfall. Fairview has gained 30 inches since Friday, being 326 inches below highwater.

The switchboard is completed for the power house. This contains ong main switch of 400 amperes and two switches for each motor of 150 amperes each, with a spare switch for another motor if same is required the General Electric company guarantee to lift the water of Trading Cove to a height of 250 feet, which will be 1 1-2 feet higher than Fairview when the same is full. The two motors will together develop a capacity of 105 horse-power. Six hours after high water it is low tide, which is followed by flood tide.

Christmas Services at St. Mary's Church-Funeral of Miss Gertrude

At all the services in St. Mary's church on Christmas day, the atiendance was very large. Masses were celebrated at 5.30, 7.30, 9 and 10.30 o'clock. There was special music, which was well rendered under the direction of Miss Large Resuders a promist. The SUDDEN DEATH OF AMONO COMMILUCCI

Was Visiting at Home of Frank Antinori When He Passed Away-Medical Examiner Has Not Determined

About 10 o'clock Sunday night Amo-About 10 o'clock Sunday night Amo-no Commiliacei, aged 26, died suddenly at the home of Frank Antinori, for whom he has been working, at Mont-ville. He had been at home much of Sunday, but went to Antinori's house about 8 o'clock. He had been drinking considerable and became sleepy. He was placed on a sofa and a short time later it was seen that he was dead. sacrament took place. The altar was beautifully decorated and arranged al-so in the church was the crib, which was visited during the day by large ater it was seen that he was dead. Medical Examiner Dr. R. W. Kim-call was called and made an investiga-Funeral of Miss Siney.

Funeral services over the remains of Miss Gertrude Elicen Silney, daughter of Mrs. Mary L. and the late William H. Silney, were held at 9 o'clock Saturday morning at St. Mary's church, Rev. J. J. Smith officiated. The church choir was in attendance and Miss Mary E. Hartle sang Ave Maria and Some Sweet Day. The music was in charge of Miss Lena C. Boudreau. There was a large attendance of friends and relatives at the church. ion, but could find no cause apparent, tie had suffered an injury to his arm Saturday morning while tending a guy tope at the Thames River Specialties ompany's mill, and it i sthought that night have caused it, but indications cinted to heart trouble, though he ad not complained. He lives at the foot of High street and is survived by his wife and chil-dren. He was accompanied to the An-tinorl house by a man who boards with him and who was with him most of the day. The medical examiner could find no indications of foul play.

ers. The bearers were Jeremiah Down-ing, Charles Young, Francis J. Mur-tha, Jr., Gustave Mussell, Frank Eurke and James Mullen. Burial was in St. Mary's cemelery and Father Smith read the burial service. The funeral cortege was composed of ten vehicles.

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENTS Held at Park Congregational and Christ Episcopal Churches.

The Christmas entertainment for the children of the Sunday school of Fark Congregational church was held in the Osgood Memorial on Saturday after-noon from 4 to 5. A general exercise consisting of Christmas carols, scripture reading and recitations, with prayer by Rev. Dr. Howe, was conduct-Napoleon Keroack of Bridgeport ed by the superintendent, Oliver L. Johnson. The classes then separated—the infant department remaining in the Sunday school room and enjoying a nerry time with games, music and a 'hristmas tree under Mrs. Oliver L. Thomas Shahan of Newton, N. J., spending a week at his home on Johnson's direction. Dolls, games and toys, with candy, were provided for each child. The older classes of the Sunday school had an equally good time in the parlors acting characles Five of the classes gave one of these each. Mrs. Leonard W. Bacon was chairman of the committee for the entertainment, the other members being Miss Amy L. Cogswell, Miss Elizabeth Pullen and Miss Marjorie Broaning, and each teacher in the Sunday school Martin and Frank Delaney of New York are visiting at their home on Golden street. and each teacher in the Sunday school assisted in some way, especially those whose scholars took part in the chiral state. The frolic ended in the diving room, where fee cream and cake were assisted in the following the scholar took part in the chiral the scholar committee, Mrs. Robert Chapet, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chapet, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chapet, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Williams and daughter, Miss G. Allyn, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Austin and Miss Lillian received and poinsettias were used in R. Austin. passing the holldays at his home on Thurs Rydholm of Rockville is spending a few days at his home on Prospect street. John J. Connelly and John Callahan f Hartford spent Christmas at their ens and poinsettlas were used in B. Austin.

At Christ Church,

At Christ Episcopal church Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock appropri-ate Christmas exercises were held, with the rector, Rev. Neilson Poc Carey, in charge. The programme, which was carried through most successfully was carried through most successions, included several beautiful anthems by the regular church choir and carols by a special girls and boys choir. Of special note was the singing by the girls choir of an old German carol, haway in a Manser, which was written by Martin Luther for his children. en by Martin Latiner for his children, ind also an old Alsatian curol. Sleep, Jittle Dove, which was rendered in a leasing manner by the hoys: As usual, a beautiful Christmus see was provided, from which were taken boxes of candy and presents and distributed among the children. There was also a bare tree and this was filled with Christmas gifts and candy by the children, and others of the church, for distribution among less fortunate children, who were denied the pleasures and privileges that they were enjoying were enjoying. In addition, an address, appropriate to the occasion and of special interest to children and parents alike, was delivered by the rector and formed a fitting conclusion to the day's programme GIFTS AT SHELTERING ARMS. Everyone Remembered and at One o'Clock a Fine Turkey Dinner Was Served.

Christmas day at the Sheltering Arms was a most pleasant one for the family there. The distribution of gifts took place in the reception room in the took place in the reception room in the morning, everyone being well remembered by friends. At 1 o'clock a delicious turkey dinner was served through the kindness of an unknown friend. All but two of the twelve residents of the home were able to gather at the table. As the finishing touch to the dinner, ice cream and cake were served, the selft of Miss Mary P. Huntington. A pleasant service followed the dinner.

Unclaimed Letters. The list of unclaimed letters at the Norwich, Conn., postoffice for the week 27, and continue until January $. conding December 24, 1910, follows:
August Benson, Charles Bailey, E. J.
Chabotte, Joseph Donovan, Joseph Parreil, N. H. Keables, Alice Harper, A.
Mandell, Dennis J. Mahoney, Jerry A. A. at the home of Horace A. Briggs on Christmas day, relatives being present from Worcester and Providence.

Mrs. Francis J. Riley. The death of Mrs. Francis J. Riley occurred suddenly at her home, No. 45 North Cliff street, about 10.30 o'clock occurred suddenly at her home, No. 48

North Cliff street, about 10.30 o'clock
Saturday morning, aged 33 years.

Mrs. Riley was the mother of five children and her youngest child was born three weeks ago. Her maiden name was Bridget M. Kelley.

When her husband left for his work
Saturday morning his wife was in bed, but she seemed well and partook of a light breakfast. About 9.30 o'clock the woman became pale and faint and neighbors were called and Dr. Harper, the family physician, was summoned, but the woman was dead when the doctor arrived. Death resulted from a stoppage of a blood vessel in the brain.
Mrs. Riley was born in Ireland and had lived in Bosion and Worcester before coming to Norwich. In St. Patrick's church on April 26, 1393, she was married by Rev. Dr. Neale to Francis J. Riley. The latter is employed by the Hopkins & Allen Arms company, Besides her husband and children, the deceased leaves a sister in Worcester and other relatives. Saturday morning his wife was in bed, but she seemed well and partook of a light breakfast. About 9.30 o'clock the woman became pale and faint and neighbors were calied and Dr. Harper, the family physician, was summoned, but the woman was dead when the doctor arrived. Death resulted from a stoppage of a blood vessel in the brain. Mrs. Riley was born in Ireland and had lived in Bosion and Worcester before coming to Norwich. In St. Patrick's church on April 25, 1393, she was married by Rev. Dr. Neale to Francis J. Riley. The latter is employed by the Hopkins & Allen Arms company. Besides her husband and children, the deceased leaves a sister in Worcester and other relatives.

Home from Cuba.

After enjoying a stay in Cuba of very nearly a month, Mr. and Mrs. Danie! F. Murphy returned late Friday night to their home at No. 75 Spring street, where they expect to remain until the first part of March, when the spring training will commence.

NORWICH TOWN Service at Sheltering Arms-Death of agreed to push the pump through to Norwich without transfer. The pump James Moffitt-Christmas Services in the Churches-Yuletide Joy for School Children.

Rev. C. A. Northrop conducted the service at the Sheltering Arms Sunday afterneon, taking for his subject Looking Upon the Things of Others. He said: We have known through experience that we are on the threshold of a great Christian truth, that Christ came to live for others. The very spirit and heart of Christ is to come to the relief of the poor and needy.

The song service was in chagge of six members of the Crowe family from Greeneville. The Message of the Bells. Beautiful Story were among the hymns sung, with piano and cornet accompaniment. The anthem of Little Town of Bethlehem impressed all with the f Bethlehem impressed all with the belody and sweetness of its solos, the torus completing the effect.

OBITUARY.

James Moffitt.

James Moffitt, whose death occurred Bozrahville, after spending part of last at $.39 o'clock Sunday morning at his home on East Town street, was born Winchester of Otrobando avenue. Seneca H. Thresher was arrested in this city Friday, charged with larceny and obtaining money under false pre-tenses. The warrant was served in tenses. The warrant was served in Franklin square by Sergeant Twomey just as Mr. Thresher was attempting to board a car. He was taken to police station and turned over to Policeman Beebe, who took him to New London, where he was arraigned before Police Judge Colt in the afternoon, and the date of his hearing was set for Dec. 20 He ascured a heart was set for Dec. 20 House the station and the date of his hearing was set for Dec. 20 House the summary of the secured a heart was set for Dec. 20 House the station and the date of his hearing was set for Dec. 20 House the summary of the secured a heart was set for Dec. 20 House the station and the date of his hearing was set for Dec. 20 House the summary of the secured a heart was set for Dec. 20 House the summary of the secured as the summary of where Mr. Mothit was superintendent of a mill. Coming north to Connecti-cue, Mr. and Mrs. Mofflit have resided in Connecticut since that time. At the age of 15 years, at the begin-ning of the vivil war James Mofflit enlisted as a drummer boy in Company 1. 18th resignent Connecticut volus.

Judge Colt in the afternoon, and the date of his hearing was set for Dec. 20. He secured a bondsman to give surety in the sum of $750 and returned here. It is alleged by the state, says the New London Day, that the accused with Attorney Thomas F. Dorsey negotiated for the purchase of property from Frank E. Lewis, administrator of the estate of James Lewis of Norwich. The property is located in Research 18th regiment, Connecticut eers. He remained through the year of the war, the regiment being station ed in Maryland and Virginia, His com-nany took part in the battle of Pied-month, which took place twelve miles from Stanton, Va. For a short time the estate of James Lewis of Norvich. The property is located in Rosemary street. Mrs. Mary Denehy was persuaded to purchase the property and alleges she paid $130 to bind the bargain. Of this it is claimed Thresher received $100 for which he never made restitution or fulfilled his part of the burgain. On false representation, it is alleged, Thresher obtained $200 from James T. Lewis in connection with the same transaction.

The count alleging theft of $100 is based on occurrences of Oct. 30, 1907, and the count alleging obtaining $200 under false pretenses is based on occurrences of Oct. 18, 1907. Judge Colt said that he thought a bond of $750 was sufficient.

In referring to the arrest, on Fridisy arrences of Oct. 18, 10.

said that he thought a bond of swas sufficient.

In referring to the arrest, on Friday evening. Mr. Thresher said it is a matter three years old in which a civil suit is pending against Frank E. Lewis of this city. Mr. Thresher states that he has accounted for all monies passed through his hands and he asks a suspension of public judgment in the case on the trial.

At the Wauwecus Hill school, and Bertha Carpenter teacher, a pretty entertainment was well carried out by the children on Friday afternoon. Among the recitations, Grace Beetham gave Snowflakes and was accompanied by a miniature snowstorm. There were songs and two dialogues. The one called Christmas Eve snowed Young Santa Claus distributing gifts which Okara Claus distributions of the control of the children on Friday afternoon. Among the recitations, Grace Beetham gave Snowflakes and was accompanied by a miniature snowstorm. stormy scene takes place. Different Eighteen Were Seated at the Table nd Jill, and Little Miss Muffit and the There was a large family gathering t the home of Joseph D. Austin at edyard on Sunday, there being eigh-Spider: A beautifully decorated tree held gifts, bags of popcorn and candy for each child. The blackboards were teen the sat down to a sumptious disner, to which full justice was done. The handsome Christmas tree was un-loaded by Samuel and William Austin, and there were gifts for all. The day artistically decorated by Miss Mildre

Those not absent during the term closing Dec. 23, 1910, were Grace Bee-tham and Eleanor Benjamin. Beautiful Christmas Services at Sacred Heart Church. Sacred Heart church was beautifully recovated for the Christmas services with wreaths and over a hundred yards of flurel used in featurns. In the same mary and about the altar were paims, rs, ofnes, ferns, roses, carnations ollows: First mass at 5.20, at he senior choir sang: second n Christmas and Closing of School Observed at Kimbail and Preston Plains Schools.

7. when the children gave The Babe of Bethlehem, by P. A. Dietrich: Adest Fidelis, by Novello, and Dear Little ones and Mother Dear, Oh, Pray Fo

By way of celebratins the concluding day of school in the fall term and also Caristmas day which followed two days later, the school children of the Klinbell school district, Miss Hattie E. Bennett teacher, met at the Presion Plains schoolhouse with the school children of thit district, Miss Sophia B. Hollowell teacher on Friday night and enjoyed a rare good time together. Both of these schools are located in Presion, and at the exercises were present a number of the parents of the children and other interested ones

At the First Congregational church on Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. G. H. Ewing, preached from the text, And ie word was made flesh. He sald The central thought of Christmas is he incarnation of God in Jesus Christ yet appear what we shall be, but we a Santa Claus who carried out his part to the delight of everybody. The entertainment consisted of recitations and dialogues by the little ones and was carried out in a highly successful manner and was enjoyed by all.

TWELVE AT FAMILY DINNER.

First in Fifteen Years at Home of Joseph E, Carpenter at Fort Point. gan prelude, Guilmant's offertory or Ye Faithful; offertory, Bethlehem, Gil-christ; choral cantata, The Hope of the World, Schnecker; introductory day the Christmas spirit prevalled and there was a happy family gathering of twelve, the first gathering of such a kind there in fifteen years. There was a fine turkey dinner served to the twelve present and gifts were distrib-uted. chorus, Ring Forth Ye Bells, part 1: The Shepherds; part 2. The Wise Men; cising. The Royal Babe; Christmas postiude, Best. In the evening the music was suitable to Christmas. The postor gave an address on The Star of Family Party.

The Misses Rogers entertained on hristmas day a femily party consist-er of Mrs. E. E. Northup, Miss Eunice Northup, Julius Northup, and Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers and their son. After dimer Santa Claus and a Christ-mas tree were the features of the afternoon.

Perfect in Attendance Those neither absent nor tardy dur-ing the term just closed, Mrs. Robert Stott teacher: Rowena Fellows, Dorothy Larksum, Alice Larkham, Herbert Larkham. Absent one day: Evelyn

Miss Rainey Stebbins of Dayville is the guest of Mrs. John Cobb. Among those present at the family

Are You Deaf? Catarrh is Probably the Porteous Mitchell of the Cause.

If you have catarrh and have con-stant ringing noises in your ears look nto the matter at once. It's a pretty sure sign that catarrh party at the home of Mrs. J. H. Eldred on Christmas day were Miss May Bab-cock and Miss Edith Babcock of West-erly, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond B. Eldred of Willimantic.

Harold and Sydney Smith of Nor-wood, Mass., are here for the Christpas holidays. Mrs. J. B. Talbot has returned to her home in Lisbon, after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Louis Olsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Olsen entertained a family party over Christmas at their home on the Scotland road.

Harry and Tyler Winchester of New Bedford, Mass., are at their home on Otrobando avenue for a few days.

Miss Edith Huntington and he brother Clarke Huntington of Brook lyn. N. Y., are at their home on East Town street for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beebe and son and daughter of Montville were Christ-mas guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Beebe of the Scotland road. Mr. and Mrs. Eben Allen of Wash-ington street are in Franklin, Mass guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parl during the Christmas season.

Business at the local substation was brisk Friday and Saturday. The post-man had the essistance of a boy and pusheart both mornings, while the ru-ral carriers were well loaded with holiday packages.

BORN.

M'CLYMONT-In Alberta, Canada, De 17, a son, Richmond Roath, to Jame D, and Flossie Allen McClymont.

DIED BENOTT-in Tativille, Dec 25, 1916, Mary Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Benoil, aged 6 years, 4 months, John Benoil, aged 6 years, 4 months, RHEY—in this city, Dec. 24. Mrs. Francis Riley.

Funeral from her late home, No. 45. North Cliff street, this (Monday) morning at 8.15. Requiem mass at St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock.

MOFFITT—in Norwich Town, Dec. 25. 1910. James Moffitt, aged 64 years.
Funeral services at his late residence, 37 East Town street Thesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Relatives, friends and Masonic brethren are invited to attend the services. Interment at Henniker, N. H. Wednesday noon.

DALEY—In Norwich, Dec. 24, 1910. Hanors, widow of Cornellus Daley, Funeral from her late home, 95 Fifth street, Tuesday morning at 8.50, Requiem mass in St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock.

WALKER-In Brooklyn, Dec 25, John Jay Waiker, beloved husband of NORRIE In New York, Dec. 22 1216, at his residence, to East Eighty-fourth street, A. Lanfear Norrie, eddest son of Emily F. Norrie and the Inte Gordon Norrie.

HICKEY In New London, Dec. 22, 1916, Mary J. widow of Edward J. Hickey aged 70 years, CARLSON—In New London, Dec. 23, 1910, Fritchof Carison of Fisher's Island, formerly of New London. HARRIS—Entered into rest, Saturday evening, Dec. 24, 1910, Ida Sylvester. Harris. Funeral services from 59 Sachem Street. Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. New Bedford and Waterbury papers please copy.

CARD OF THANKS

When called upon to part with a loying daughter and sister, kind friends ought to console us in various ways ome in person and others by letter by which we are deeply grateful, and specially do we thank The Maldens of Sacred Heart and those who contributed forms of flowers. The manistations of sympaths thus expressed ill over be held in grateful rememberance by brance by

MRS. MARY L SLINEY.
MISS KATHERINE L SLINEY.
MISS ANNA E SLINEY.
MISS MARGUERITE B SLINEY.
dec26d

CHURCH & ALLEN 15 Main Street,

Funeral Directors Embalmers.

Lady Assistant, Telephone call 328-3. Henry E. Church. Wm. Smith Allen.

High and low cut, light and heavy weight. Best makes at lowest prices FRANK A. BILL, 104 Main Street

Notice.

The balance of our Holiday Goods. onsisting of Music Cabinets. Desks. Smoking Sets Rocking Horses, Dol. Carriages and Go-Carts, Blackboards

Pictures, Foot Rests, Work Baskets Sleds and many other useful articles, will be closed out at cost, and some below cost.

SHEA & BURKE, Norwich and Taliville

THE COMPANY.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL

Store Closed Today In Commemoration Of Christmas Day

The Porteous & Mitchell Co.

FURS

of the better grade constantly demonstrate good judgment and economy to the wearer and are a source of steady enjoyment.

MacPHERSON. 101 Main St., Norwich, Conn.

Be Up-to-date

and have your bills made out and your letters written by a public typewriter.

We have a thoroughly competent one, and the charges are very low. Just try it and satisfy yourself.

Wauregan House, The Parker-Davenport Co., Proprietors.

MUNEY SAVERS

Felt Boots $1.50 to $3.25

Heavy Arctics $1.00 to $3.00

Rubbers

ALLING RUBBER CO. Norwich (stores) New London

MISS M. C. ADLES, Hair, Scalp and Face Specialist

thing to make women attractive. Miss Adles will be in Norwich all this week, striving Monday evening. Carly appointments becessary.

NORWICH-Wauregan House. NEW YORK-210 West 111th St. decision wif

DIAMONDS

If you have neglected to buy a Christmas Gift, buy a Diamond for a New Year's Gift. We can furnish you with any price stone

John & Geo. H. Bliss.

FRISWELL

THE JEWELER, has a full line of goods suitable for New Year's Gifts.

25 to 27 Franklin Street. THERE is no advertising medium in Eastern Connecticut equal to The Bul-leun for pusiness results.

stock on hand of the above, and to move it we have roude quite a reduction in the prices. It is a good time Also Palits, Muresco, Moldings, and general supply of decorative mate-als. Paloting, Paper Hanging and

and Embalmar